Hills Christian Community School (HILLS) is a delightful, unique and popular co-educational, non-denominational Christian School located on two campuses at Verdun and Oakbank, in the picturesque Adelaide Hills. The School caters for around 500 students and in the last ten years has introduced an Early Learning Centre, a Year 7 Centre, nine acres of Nature Play and a Year 8 - 12 Secondary campus under construction to complement the outstanding Primary School.

With an impressive reputation for providing a broad range of ELC - Year 12 experiences, the School respects and nurtures the individual and promotes core Christian values, a love of learning and resilience in its students. HILLS is blessed to have attracted a top quality staff team who actively engage children with their learning.
