Hills Christian Community School is a unique co-educational, non-denominational Christian School located on over 19 acres of picturesque property at Verdun in the stunning Adelaide Hills. The School caters for around 500 students and in the last ten years has introduced an Early Learning Centre, a Year 7 Centre, nine acres of Nature Play and a brand new Year 8 – 12 Secondary campus to complement the outstanding Primary School.

With an impressive reputation for providing a broad range of ELC – Year 12 experiences, the School respects and nurtures the individual and promotes core Christian values, a love of learning and resilience in its students. HILLS is blessed to have attracted a top quality staff team who actively engage children with their learning.
